144 Support Services may, upon notice to the obligor and obligee, redirect 145 payments for the support of all such children to either the state of 146 Connecticut or the present custodial party, as their interests may 147 appear, provided neither the obligor nor the obligee objects in writing 148 within ten business days from the mailing date of such notice. Any 149 such notice shall be sent by first class mail to the most recent address

150 of such obligor and obligee, as recorded in the state case registry 151 pursuant to section 46b-218, as amended by this act, and a copy of such 152 notice shall be filed with the court or family support magistrate if both 153 the obligor and obligee fail to object to the redirected payments within 154 ten business days from the mailing date of such notice. All payments 155 shall be distributed as required by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

156 (3) Notwithstanding subdivision (2) of this subsection or 170 obligee of the support order any money retained by the state during 171 the period of redirection that is due such obligee.

172 (c) The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child 173 Support Services shall enter into cooperative agreements with 176 and with respect to other matters of common concern in the area of 177 child support enforcement. Officers of the Judicial Branch and law 178 enforcement officials authorized and required to enter into cooperative 179 agreements with the [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of 180 Child Support Services include, but are not limited to, officials of the 182 cooperative agreements shall contain performance standards to 183 address the mandatory provisions of both state and federal laws and 184 federal regulations concerning child support.

185 (d) The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child
186 Support Services shall have authority to determine on a periodic basis 187 whether any individuals who owe child support obligations are 188 receiving unemployment compensation. In IV-D cases, the [bureau] 189 office may authorize the collection of any such obligations owed by an 190 individual receiving unemployment compensation through an 191 agreement with the individual or a court order pursuant to section 52-192 362, as amended by this act, under which a portion of the individual's 193 unemployment compensation is withheld and forwarded to the state 194 acting by and through the IV-D agency. As used in this section, 195 "unemployment compensation" means any compensation payable 196 under chapter 567, including amounts payable by the administrator of 197 the unemployment compensation law pursuant to an agreement under

200 (e) The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child 201 Support Services shall enter into purchase of service agreements with 202 other state officials, departments and agencies which do not have 203 judicial or law enforcement authority, including, but not limited to, the 204 Commissioner of Administrative Services, to assist in administering 205 the child support enforcement plan. The [Bureau of Child Support 206 Enforcement] Office of Child Support Services shall have authority to 207 enter into such agreements with the Labor Commissioner and to 208 withhold unemployment compensation pursuant to subsection (d) of 209 this section and section 31-227.

210 (f) The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child 211 Support Services shall have the sole responsibility to make referrals to 212 the federal Parent Locator Service established pursuant to 88 Stat. 2353
213 (1975), 42 USC 653, as amended, for the purpose of locating deserting 214 parents.

215 (g) The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child 216 Support Services shall have the sole responsibility to make

217 recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly for 218 needed program legislation to ensure implementation of Title IV-D of 219 the Social Security Act, as amended.

220 (h) (1) The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child 221 Support Services shall provide, or arrange to provide through one or 222 more of the state officials, departments and agencies, the same services 223 for obtaining and enforcing child support orders in cases in which 224 children are not beneficiaries of TFA, Medicaid or foster care as in 225 cases where children are the beneficiaries of TFA, Medicaid or foster 226 care. Such services shall also be made available to residents of other 227 states on the same terms as to residents of this state. Support services 228 in cases other than TFA, Medicaid or foster care will be provided upon 229 application to the [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of 230 Child Support Services by the person seeking to enforce a child 231 support obligation and the payment of an application fee, pursuant to 232 the provisions of subsection (i) of this section.

233 (2) In addition to the application fee, the [Bureau of Child Support
234 Enforcement] Office of Child Support Services may assess costs
235 incurred for the establishment, enforcement or modification of a 236 support order in cases other than TFA, Medicaid or foster care. Such 237 assessment shall be based on a fee schedule adopted by the 238 Department of Social Services pursuant to chapter 54. The fee schedule 239 to be charged in such cases shall be made available to any individual 240 upon request. The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of 241 Child Support Services shall adopt procedures for the notification of 242 Superior Court judges and family support magistrates when a fee has 243 been assessed upon an obligee for support services and a Superior 244 Court judge or a family support magistrate shall order the obligor to 245 pay any such assessment to the [Bureau of Child Support 246 Enforcement] Office of Child Support Services. In cases where such 247 order is not entered, the obligee shall pay an amount based on a 248 sliding scale not to exceed the obligee's ability to pay. The Department 249 of Social Services shall adopt such sliding scale pursuant to chapter 54.

250 (3) The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child 251 Support Services shall also, in the case of an individual who never 252 received temporary assistance for needy families and for whom the 253 state has collected at least five hundred dollars of support in a one-254 year period, impose an annual fee of twenty-five dollars for each case 255 in which services are furnished. The annual fee shall be (A) retained by 256 the state from the support collected on behalf of the individual, but not 257 from the first five hundred dollars collected, (B) paid by the individual 258 applying for the services, (C) recovered from the noncustodial parent, 259 or (D) paid by the state.

265 automated system for the reporting of collections on all accounts 266 established for the collection of all IV-D support orders. Such reporting 267 shall be made available to the Family Support Magistrate Division and 268 to all state agencies which have a cooperative agreement with the IV-D 269 agency. Such automated system shall include a state case registry 270 which complies with federal law and regulations. The state case 271 registry shall contain information on each support order established or 272 modified in this state. The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] 273 Office of Child Support Services, utilizing information contained in the 274 state case registry, shall establish, maintain and periodically update a 275 list of all delinquent child support obligors. The list shall, at a 276 minimum, contain the name, residential address and amount of the 277 delinquent child support owed by a child support obligor, exclusive of 278 any amount of child support owed for which an appeal is pending.
279 The [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child Support
280 Services shall publish on the Department of Social Services' Internet 281 web site, the names, residential addresses and amounts of delinquent 282 child support owed by the one hundred individuals having the highest

286 amount which exceeds ninety days of periodic payments on a current 287 child support or arrearage payment order, or (2) has failed to make 288 court ordered medical or dental insurance coverage available within 432 application. Such assistance shall include, but is not limited to, 433 providing the obligor with information about how such a motion is 434 filed, contacting the state of continuing exclusive jurisdiction on behalf 435 of the obligor to obtain appropriate forms, and transmitting such forms 436 and applicable information to the appropriate tribunal in such state.

474 deviates from the child support guidelines established pursuant to 475 section 46b-215a. A requesting party under subparagraph (A)(i) or (B)

476 of this subdivision shall have a right to such review every three years

486 substantial deviation from such child support guidelines, 487 consideration shall be given to the division of real and personal 488 property between the parties set forth in any final decree entered 489 pursuant to chapter 815j and the benefits accruing to the child as the 490 result of such division. No order for periodic payment of support may 491 be subject to retroactive modification, except that the family support 492 magistrate may order modification with respect to any period during 493 which there is a pending motion for modification of a support order 494 from the date of service of notice of such pending motion to the 495 opposing party pursuant to section 52-50.

505 Office of Child Support Services within the Department of Social 506 Services or an investigator of the Department of Administrative 507 Services or the Attorney General, take any action which the dependent 508 could take to enforce a support order;

509 Sec. 19. Subsection (e) of section 52-362 of the general statutes is 510 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective 511 January 1, 2016):

512 (e) A withholding order shall issue in the amount necessary to 513 enforce a support order against only such nonexempt income of the 514 obligor as exceeds the greater of (1) eighty-five per cent of the first one 515 hundred forty-five dollars per week of disposable income, or (2) the 516 amount exempt under Section 1673 of Title 15 of the United States
517 Code, or against any lesser amount which the court or family support 518 magistrate deems equitable. Subject to subsection (d) of section 46b-88, 519 the withholding order shall secure payment of past and future
520 amounts due under the support order and an additional amount 521 computed in accordance with the child support guidelines established 522 in accordance with section 46b-215a, to be applied toward liquidation 523 of any arrearage accrued under such order, unless contested by the 524 obligor after a notice has been served pursuant to subsection (c) of this 525 section, in which case the court or family support magistrate may 526 determine the amount to be applied toward the liquidation of the 527 arrearage found to have accrued under prior order of the court or 528 family support magistrate. In no event shall such additional amount be 529 applied if there is an existing arrearage order from the court or family
530 support magistrate in a IV-D support case, as defined in subdivision 531 (13) of subsection (b) of section 46b-231. Any investigator or other 532 authorized employee of the [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement]
533 Office of Child Support Services within the Department of Social 534 Services, or any officer of Support Enforcement Services of the 535 Superior Court, may issue a withholding order entered by the Superior 536 Court or a family support magistrate pursuant to subsection (b) of this 537 section, and shall issue a withholding order pursuant to this subsection 538 when the obligor becomes subject to withholding under subsection (c) 539 of this section. On service of the order of withholding on an existing or 540 any future employer or other payer of income, and until the support 541 order is fully satisfied or modified, the order of withholding is a 542 continuing lien and levy on the obligor's income as it becomes due.

543 Sec. 20. Subsection (h) of section 52-362 of the general statutes is 544 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective 545 January 1, 2016):

546 (h) Service of any process under this section, including any notice, 547 may be made in accordance with section 52-57, or by certified mail,

550 Services, by an investigator or other officer of the [Bureau of Child 551 Support Enforcement] Office of Child Support Services within the 552 Department of Social Services, by an investigator of the Department of 553 Administrative Services or by the Attorney General. Service of income 554 withholding orders by Support Enforcement Services or by an 556 under this section may be made in accordance with section 52-57, by 557 certified mail, return receipt requested, by first class mail or 558 electronically, provided the employer agrees to accept service made 559 electronically.

560 Sec. 21. Subsection (p) of section 52-362 of the general statutes is 561 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective 562 January 1, 2016):

564 to the state disbursement unit established and maintained by the 565 Commissioner of Social Services in accordance with subsection (j) of 566 section 17b-179, as amended by this act. The state disbursement unit 567 shall insure distribution of all money collected under this section to the 568 dependent, the state and the support enforcement agencies of other 569 states, as their interests may appear, within two business days. Each 570 dependent who is not receiving child support enforcement services, as 571 defined in subsection (b) of section 46b-231, as amended by this act, 572 shall be notified upon the issuance of a withholding order pursuant to 573 this section, that such services are offered free of charge by the State of 574 Connecticut upon application to the [Bureau of Child Support
575 Enforcement] Office of Child Support Services within the Department

576 of Social Services.

577 Sec. 22. Subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of section 52-362f of the 578 general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu 579 thereof (Effective January 1, 2016):

581 Office of Child Support Services within the Department of Social 582 Services of this state and, when the context requires, means either the 583 court or agency of any other jurisdiction with functions similar to those 584 defined in this section, including the issuance and enforcement of 585 support orders.

586 Sec. 23. Subsection (g) of section 52-362f of the general statutes is 587 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective 588 January 1, 2016):

589 (g) An income withholding order under this section shall direct 590 payment to the [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of Child 591 Support Services or its designated collection agent. The [bureau] office 592 or its designated agent shall promptly distribute payments received 593 pursuant to an income withholding order or garnishment based on a 594 support order of another jurisdiction entered under this section to the 595 agency or person designated pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection 596 (a) of section 46b-213h. A support order entered pursuant to subsection 597 (d) of this section does not nullify and is not nullified by a support 598 order made by a court of this state pursuant to any other section of the 599 general statutes or a support order made by a court of any other state.
600 Amounts collected by any withholding of income shall be credited 601 against the amounts accruing or accrued for any period under any 602 support orders issued either by this state or by another jurisdiction.

603 Sec. 24. Section 52-362i of the general statutes is repealed and the 604 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2016):

605 If the court or family support magistrate finds that (1) an obligor is 606 delinquent on payment of child support, and (2) future support

607 payments are in jeopardy, or (3) the obligor has exhibited or expressed 608 an intention not to pay any such support, the court or family support 609 magistrate may order the obligor to provide a cash deposit not to 610 exceed the amount of four times the current monthly support and 611 arrearage obligation, to be held in escrow by the [Bureau of Child
 612 Support Enforcement] Office of Child Support Services or Support 613 Enforcement Services. Any funds from such cash deposit may be 614 disbursed by the [Bureau of Child Support Enforcement] Office of 615 Child Support Services or Support Enforcement Services to the 616 custodial parent upon a determination by said [bureau] office or 617 Support Enforcement Services that the obligor has failed to pay the full 618 amount of the monthly support obligation. Payment shall be in an 619 amount that, when combined with the obligor's payment, would not 620 exceed the monthly support obligation. Payment from such cash
 621 deposit shall not preclude a finding of delinquency during the period 622 of time in which the obligor failed to pay current support.
