

Connecticut should be opposing any pro abortion and pro suicide legislation. It is the sole prerogative of God to give and take life. It is not the right of legislatures to do the work of the evil ones, particularly those whose in laws work for pro the abortion industry.