

Please defeat the assisted suicide bill. This kind of legislation is not needed; there are much better and more humane and effective ways to ease the pain and depression of the seriously ill or depressed. Death is not the answer to life's difficulties. We shouldn't make causing death a public policy in Connecticut or anywhere else.

Sincerely,

Patrick and Anita Flood