

I am a 64-year old licensed psychotherapist. I urge the legislature to consider, and pass, this bill.

All we are talking about is allowing individuals to choose to exit this world in a pain-free and dignified manner, with some sense of control over their lives and deaths. It's only humane