

The Hippocratic Oath states, “Do No Harm” and specifically mentions giving anything to end a person’s life. We need to assist people to LIVE. Each person deserves comfort care and pain is manageable . I have to wonder at why someone feels they have the right to cause the demise of another. That’s murder in my book. Mary Gigandet,
Versailles, OH