

I strongly support the right of the terminally ill to have a physician's help in ending their lives without pain. It is simply no one else's business. If you disagree, may you and all you love die in protracted agony, since that's what blocking this bill entails.

Most cordially yours,

Robert J. Hard
Norwalk, CT