

Dear Connecticut Gov,

Please do not pass the assisted suicide "death" bill.. Assisted suicide is just that -suicide.. Young people especially don't need to be a bad example of the government to decide when life should end. Have you seen the suicide rate of young people these days? We had a suicide in our campus at UNH, where my husband was a grad student, just a few years back.

Thanks for your consideration,
Kathryn Majumdar