

To Whom it may concern,

As coordinator of my faith based end of life programs, I fully support the aid in dying legislation being proposed. Some elders live, suffer, and die alone. I have often heard them say that control at the end of life is there most fervent wish.

Sincerely,

Maredith Spector

Danbury, CT