

Substitute House Bill No. 6302

Special Act No. 21-16

AN ACT STUDYING THE CONSOLIDATION OF PUBLIC SAFETY ANSWERING POINTS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1. (Effective from passage) (a) There is established a task force to study the current system of public safety answering points and make recommendations for consolidating such answering points while prioritizing the need to ensure public safety. The task force shall consider and make recommendations regarding: (1) The establishment of state goals regarding consolidation, (2) the definition of regional public safety answering point, (3) any challenges to consolidation presented by existing collective bargaining agreements, (4) issues that may arise in municipalities that would no longer have an individual physically located within the municipality to act as a dispatcher at all times after consolidation, (5) timeframes for consolidation, (6) where and how to locate regional public safety answering points, (7) ways to enhance the skills of telecommunicators, as defined in section 28-30 of the general statutes, and personnel providing emergency medical dispatch, as defined in section 28-25 of the general statutes, including recommendations regarding training standards and performance accountability, (8) the governance structure for regional public safety answering points, and (9) any other related issues the task force deems appropriate.

Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, or the commanding officer's designee;

(8) The director of the Division of State-Wide Emergency Telecommunications within the Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, or the director's designee; and

(9) The undersecretary of the Intergovernmental Policy and Planning Division within the Office of Policy and Management, or the undersecretary's designee.

(c) Any member of the task force appointed under subdivision (1), (2), (3), (4), (5) or (6) of subsection (b) of this section may be a member of the General Assembly.

(d) All initial appointments to the task force shall be made not later than thirty days after the effective date of this section. Any vacancy shall be filled by the appointing authority.

(e) The speaker of the House of Representatives and the president pro tempore of the Senate shall select the chairpersons of the task force from among the members of the task force. Such chairpersons shall schedule the first meeting of the task force, which shall be held not later than sixty days after the effective date of this section. Such chairpersons may establish subcommittees of the members as needed and designate a chairperson of each such subcommittee.

(f) The administrative staff of the joint standing committee of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to public safety and security shall serve as administrative staff of the task force.

(g) The task force shall submit, in accordance with the provisions of section 11-4a of the general statutes, to the joint standing committees of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to public safety and security and planning and development: (1) An interim
