Explanation

The bill requires the Office of Policy and Management (OPM) to distribute $10 million in undisbursed, federal COVID relief funds to provide grants to private providers of domestic violence, mental health, suicide prevention and substance abuse services for individuals experiencing such issues as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The bill is effective from passage and therefore funds may be distributed beginning in FY 21.

The Out Years

Timeframes for obligation and expenditure of funds varies by federal funding source.
