Explanation

This bill makes various changes affecting elections, including the forfeiture and restoration of electoral privileges for certain individuals convicted of a felony, voter registration, and polling place challengers.

Under current law, an individual imprisoned for a felony regains the right to vote and accompanying electoral privileges after paying all fines and completing any required prison and parole time. The bill will result in an indeterminate revenue loss from reduced collection of criminal fines and penalties. The other provisions of the bill are not anticipated to result in a fiscal impact to the state or municipalities.
