

I'm writing to express my opinion regarding these two proposed bills. Both will in effect place obstacles in the voting process. The Secretary of State must be held accountable to the voters in order to increase confidence in and access to elections. Instead of making voting as difficult as possible we should be encouraging voter participation & turn out. This is a democracy & the right to vote is all important & should be encouraged.

Louis Noel
East Haven, Ct.