

I was pleased by the high voter turnout nationally in November, and attribute that at least in part to the ease of early, and no excuse absentee voting. Mail in balloting, done for years in several states, has proven to be secure, and by making voting easier, encourages voter participation which we should all support.

Scott MacDonald
28 Gunger Hill Road
Higganum, CT 06441

Sent from my iPad