

The right to vote includes the duty and responsibility to do so. My very first vote was by absentee ballot because I was away from home while serving in the Army. Absentee voting should not be no-excuse.

Early voting should not be allowed nor should the counting of absentee ballots be allowed before election day.

The covid-19 virus is now in decline and the rules for the last election should not be used for May elections.

Mark MacKinney
7 Towantic Hill Road
Oxford, CT 07478