

As a Stamford resident, I cannot understand how a multigenerational disease like Covid is used as an excuse to make temporary voting changes permanent. As a physician, I understand it even less. With the vaccine in use, there should be a significant decrease in the Covid transmission rates throughout the state. We are currently seeing this happening. If we can go to the grocery store, we should be able to vote, in person, unless an absentee ballot is requested.

Al Tagliavia MD