

I am writing in support of early and no excuse absentee voting. Access to voting is a right, privilege and responsibility for EVERY American. However, historically that has not been true for many marginalized citizens. This past pandemic election has taught us much. We have learned that we CAN make voting accessible to EVERYONE and we can do it with integrity. This must be the new norm, not just in a pandemic.

Nancy Watson

Riverside , CT