

To All Concerned:

I am writing in opposition to HJ 58 and HJ 59. During a time when there is heightened public interest in the integrity of our elections, I am concerned about legislation that could potentially open the electoral process to voter fraud. Legislators should be instilling confidence in our electoral process by ensuring its security and validity before imposing any new legislative changes that may concern your constituents. Looking forward to this discussion via Public Testimony.

Susan Zabohonski

Southington, CT