

We need more representation from retired teachers. Remember teachers don't get social security in CT. Our teachers retirement is the only retirement income we have. Without most of us couldn't survive. We need more representation. Peter Galetsa-retired teacher