Explanation

The amendment strikes the underlying bill and its associated fiscal impact resulting in the following impact.

Section 1 results in a cost to the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services (DMHAS) of approximately $96,300 in FY 22 and FY $99,200 in 23 (with associated fringe costs of $39,800 and $41,000, respectively) to support an additional social worker at Troop D.

<sup>1</sup>The fringe benefit costs for most state employees are budgeted centrally in accounts administered by the Comptroller. The estimated active employee fringe benefit cost associated with most personnel changes is 41.3% of payroll in FY 22 and FY 23.

Currently, one DMHAS social worker assists state police at Troop E in de-escalating situations involving individuals with mental illness and ensures access to follow-up services.

Section 1 also results in a cost to the Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection (DESPP) of up to $160,000<sup>2</sup> in FY 22 to train up to an additional 60 troopers in Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training to expand the program to Troop D. FY 23 and future year training costs are dependent on how many CIT trained troopers need to be replaced. CIT training takes approximately 40 hours and costs $125 per trooper.

Section 2 require DESPP and DHMAS to study the expansion of the pilot program resulting in no fiscal impact to the state.
