

SB 1024

This bill should be defeated. Connecticut needs to attract new businesses and residents to grow taxes. This bill, if passed, will have a negative impact.

Local development must be in the hands of its own government. The state does not know what is best for each town.

Christine Munro