

SB 1024

To whom it may concern:

Connecticut towns should have the right to manage their own development and zoning. I do not want the state in control of our local town and threatening its charm and character. I live here for the way of life and to escape the crowdedness of Long Island and NYC. I strongly oppose this and hope that my voice is heard in this matter.

Sincerely,
Michele Richardson