

As a homeowner and small businesswoman I strongly oppose SB1024 "AN ACT CONCERNING ZONING AUTHORITY," as this unprecedented proposal before the Connecticut General Assembly would take away local authority over planning and zoning. This legislative proposal is bad policy and the negative consequences of SB1024 far outweigh any perceived benefits to the state and its residents and it must not, therefore, be enacted into law.

Respectfully submitted,

Katherine Rider
16 Taconic Road
Greenwich, CT 06830
Kathyrider@prodigy.net