

SB 1024

Planning and zoning decisions belong at the local level, not the state and certainly not the federal level.

I'm sick and tired of people who don't even live in our towns trying to dictate what should and shouldn't be built and force zoning requirements that don't benefit the residents of the town and aren't wanted!

Barbara Waterfield

Sent from my iPad