Explanation

The bill establishes the Connecticut Semiquincentennial Commission to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution. The commission shall be within the office of the Secretary of the State for administrative purposes only.

There will be costs, potentially significant, to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution. The costs depend on the scope of activities associated with the event. The bill specifies that the commission can accept: 1) federal funds, 2) donations from private entities, or 3) request funds from the General Assembly.

Senate "A" strikes the underlying bill and its associated impact and results in the impact described above.

The Out Years

The fiscal impact would continue until 2026, which is the 250th
