Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

This bill requires the Office of Policy and Management (OPM) to include estimated expenditure requirements from the State Contracting Standards Board (SCSB) in proposed budget documents and prohibits the governor from reducing SCSB's allotment requisition or allotments in force. This is not anticipated to result in a fiscal impact.

Privatization laws are expanded under this bill to include an analysis or a proposed contract's potential impact on workers of color or workers who are women. Various state agencies may incur a cost to the extent they require additional staff to conduct this analysis.

This bill makes other various changes to the SCSB's authority which is not anticipated to result in a fiscal impact.

Senate "A" strikes the original bill and its associated fiscal impact, thus becoming the bill with the above referenced fiscal impact.
