- (D) One member with expertise in family relations;
- (E) One or more representatives of a local fatherhood program;
- (F) One member with expertise in male mental and physical health;
- (G) One member representing the interests of custodial parents;
- (H) One member representing the interests of noncustodial parents;
- (I) One member representing the interests of children;
- (J) One member with expertise in the area of domestic violence; and
- (K) One member with expertise in child development.

(c) The Commissioner of Social Services shall serve as a chairperson of the council and shall designate a cochairperson from among the membership of the council. The commissioner shall convene the council not later than thirty days after the effective date of this section, and the council shall meet at least quarterly thereafter. The commissioner shall fill any vacancy of seats under subdivision (17) of subsection (b) of this section.

(d) The Commissioner of Social Services may designate a working group from among the members of the council to carry out specific duties required under this section and section 1 of this act. The commissioner shall seek the advice and participation of any person, organization or state or federal agency the commissioner deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this section and section 1 of this act.

(e) The Commissioner of Social Services, in consultation with the council and within available resources, shall apply for any available federal and private funds for programs that promote CFI objectives in accordance with this section and section 1 of this act. The commissioner shall award grants from any such available funds to entities that provide (1) employment and training opportunities for low-income fathers to increase the earning capacity of such fathers; (2) classes in parenting and financial literacy; and (3) other support services and programs that promote responsible parenting, economic stability and communication and interaction between fathers and their children.

(f) Applicants for grants provided pursuant to subsection (e) of this section shall apply to the Commissioner of Social Services at such time and in such manner as prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner shall, in consultation with the council, establish criteria for eligibility for grants and for the awarding of grants. At a minimum, the commissioner shall require grantees to (1) implement accountability measures and results-based outcomes as a condition of being awarded a grant; (2) leverage funds through existing resources and collaboration with community-based and nonprofit organizations; and (3) consult with experts in domestic violence to ensure that, when appropriate, the programs and services provided to fathers and families pursuant to this section and section 1 of this act address issues concerning domestic violence.

(g) Not later than December 1, 2022, and annually thereafter, the commissioner, in consultation with the council, shall report, in accordance with section 11-4a of the general statutes, to the joint standing committees of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to appropriations and the budgets of state agencies, human services and children on the grant program's effectiveness in achieving CFI objectives.

Sec. 3. Section 17b-27a of the general statutes is repealed. (Effective from passage)
