AN ACT CONCERNING A STUDY TO PROMOTE WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT USING THE GLOBAL ENTREPRENEUR IN RESIDENCE PROGRAM AS A MODEL.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General
Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. (Effective from passage) (a) There is established a working 2 group to conduct a study and make recommendations regarding the 3 feasibility of state universities leveraging the H1-B visa cap exemption 4 process to fill high-value job openings and promote workforce
5 development, using the Global Entrepreneur In Residence program as a 6 model. The study shall include, but need not be limited to: (1) The 7 development of recommendations for creating an international pipeline 8 that would expand the size of the eligible workforce population; (2) an 9 examination of any barriers to establishing such a pipeline; (3) an 10 examination of any barriers faced by the business community when 11 hiring international students; (4) an evaluation of international 12 workforce pipeline programs used in other states; (5) the creation of a 13 best practices document regarding current international workforce

14 pipelines; (6) an examination of how to promote such a pipeline for in-15 demand jobs outlined by the Office of Workforce Strategy; and (7) an 16 examination of how the state can be more competitive in recruiting an 17 international workforce.

18 (b) The chairpersons of the joint standing committee of the General 19 Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to commerce shall 20 appoint cochairpersons from among the members of the working group, 21 which shall consist of, but need not be limited to, the following 22 members:

23 (1) The chairpersons and ranking members of the joint standing
24 committees of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters
25 relating to commerce and higher education;

26 (2) The president of The University of Connecticut, or the president's 27 designee;

28 (3) The president of the Connecticut State Colleges and Universities, 29 or the president's designee;

30 (4) A representative from an independent institution of higher 31 education, who shall be appointed by the chairpersons of the joint 32 standing committee of the General Assembly having cognizance of 33 matters relating to commerce;

34 (5) The Chief Workforce Officer, or the officer's designee;

35 (6) The Labor Commissioner, or the commissioner's designee;

36 (7) Two immigration attorneys representing different immigration 37 populations, who shall be appointed by the chairpersons of the working 38 group;

39 (8) Five representatives from businesses with experience in hiring 40 and sponsoring international students, who shall be appointed by the 41 chairpersons of the working group; and

42 (9) A representative from an association representing businesses and 43 industries in this state, who shall be appointed by the chairpersons of 44 the working group.

45 (c) Any member of the working group appointed under subdivision 46 (4), (7), (8) or (9) of subsection (b) of this section may be a member of the 47 General Assembly.

48 (d) All initial appointments to the working group shall be made not 49 later than thirty days after the effective date of this section. Any vacancy 50 shall be filled by the appointing authority.

51 (e) The chairpersons of the working group shall schedule the first 52 meeting of the working group, which shall be held not later than sixty 53 days after the effective date of this section.

54 (f) The administrative staff of the joint standing committee of the 55 General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to commerce
56 shall serve as administrative staff of the working group.

57 (g) Not later than January 1, 2024, the working group shall submit a 58 report on its findings and recommendations to the joint standing
59 committee of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters
60 relating to commerce, in accordance with the provisions of section 11-4a
61 of the general statutes. The working group shall terminate on the date 62 that it submits such report or January 1, 2024, whichever is later.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
