Explanation

The bill makes various changes regarding how the state regulates homemaker-companion agencies resulting in the cost described below.

Section 1 results in a cost of $100,000 in FY 24 to the Office of Policy and Management to hire one consultant who will develop a plan to transfer homemaker-companion agency registration and oversight responsibilities from the Department of Consumer Protection (DCP) to the Department of Public Health (DPH) and prepare the required report by February 1, 2024.

The bill also makes various technical and minor changes regarding homemaker-companion agencies resulting in no fiscal impact to the state.

Senate "A" strikes various sections of the underlying bill which eliminates the cost and the potential cost to the Department of Consumer Protection and the State Comptroller.

The amendment adds requirements to the transfer plan for homemaker-companion agencies which doesn't alter the cost to the Office of Policy and Management in the underlying bill.

The amendment also makes various changes in statute regarding homemaker-companion agencies resulting in no fiscal impact to the state.
