Resolution recognizing and honoring the members of the 6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion.

RESPONSE FROM ADMINISTRATION/AGENCY:

Non submitted

NATURE AND SOURCES OF SUPPORT:

Representative Andre Baker, 124th District, Connecticut General Assembly:

The 6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion was a historical unit of the Women's Army Corps (WAC) during World War II. These women played a crucial role in processing and delivering millions of parcels to American soldiers overseas. They demonstrated remarkable bravery, dedication, and hard work in challenging conditions, significantly contributing to the war effort. Their service deserves to be remembered and celebrated, not only for its historical significance but also for inspiring future generations

NATURE AND SOURCES OF OPPOSITION:

Dr. Sheila M. Kearney, niece of Major Mary Frances Kearney, Commanding Officer, Company A, 6888, World War 2: Opposes this bill as drafted

Dr. Kearney submitted written testimony with suggested language for this bill that she would support.
