Substitute House Bill No. 7104

House of Representatives, May 14, 2025

The Committee on Appropriations reported through REP. WALKER of the 93rd Dist., Chairperson of the Committee on the part of the House, that the substitute bill ought to pass.

AN ACT DISREGARDING INCOME FROM PILOT CASH ASSISTANCE AND JOB TRAINING PROGRAMS FROM TEMPORARY FAMILY ASSISTANCE ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATIONS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1. Subsection (d) of section 17b-112 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2025):

(d) (1) Under said program, no family shall be eligible that has total gross earnings exceeding the federal poverty level, however, in the calculation of the benefit amount for eligible families and previously eligible families that become ineligible temporarily because of receipt of workers' compensation benefits by a family member who subsequently returns to work immediately after the period of receipt of such benefits, earned income shall be disregarded up to the federal poverty level. On and after October 1, 2023, the commissioner shall not deny a family assistance under said program on the basis of such family's assets unless such assets exceed six thousand dollars. Except when determining eligibility for a six-month extension of benefits pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, the commissioner shall disregard the first fifty dollars per month of income attributable to current child support that a family receives in determining eligibility and benefit levels for temporary family assistance. Any current child support in excess of fifty dollars per month collected by the department on behalf of an eligible child shall be considered in determining eligibility but shall not be considered when calculating benefits and shall be taken as reimbursement for assistance paid under this section, except that when the current child support collected exceeds the family's monthly award of temporary family assistance benefits plus fifty dollars, the current child support shall be paid to the family and shall be considered when calculating benefits.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1) of this subsection, on and after January 1, 2024, in the first month in which a family's total gross earnings exceed one hundred per cent of the federal poverty level and for a period not to exceed six consecutive months, the department shall disregard, for purposes of eligibility, a family's total gross earnings in an amount not to exceed two hundred thirty per cent of the federal poverty level. If a family's total gross earnings are an amount between one hundred seventy-one per cent and two hundred thirty per cent of the federal poverty level, the department shall reduce the household's benefit by twenty per cent for the months in which earnings are between one hundred seventy-one per cent and two hundred thirty per cent of the federal poverty level.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1) of this subsection, the commissioner shall disregard any financial assistance received by a family member to the extent the commissioner determines that such financial assistance was provided to the family member as part of such family member's participation in a pilot program that has developed a plan to study and evaluate the impact and potential benefits of direct cash transfers. Such disregard shall be applied for the length of time the family member participates in such program or twenty-four cumulative months, subject to reauthorization by the commissioner for a period of time not to exceed sixty cumulative months. Any pilot program subject to the provisions of this subdivision shall have received approval from the Department of Social Services to conduct such pilot program based on the department's ability to receive required waivers authorizing such income disregards in applicable federal and state benefits programs. The department shall request waivers authorizing such income disregards from all federal, state and local agencies as necessary. The department shall maintain a listing of approved pilot programs for use by the public and department staff when determining continuing eligibility of participants in existing benefits programs. Before approving a pilot program, the department shall review such program for long-term sustainability and ability to meet the pilot program's programmatic and fiscal goals. The department shall require an approved pilot program to (A) inform potential participants, in writing in advance of participation in the pilot program, of the potential impact of their participation on their current and future eligibility for federal and state benefits, and (B) include contact information in such written document to allow such participants to obtain additional information or guidance on the impact of pilot program participation on their eligibility for such benefits.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1) of this subsection, the commissioner shall disregard from an income eligibility determination any stipend received by a family member as part of such family member's participation in a job training program approved by the commissioner, including, but not limited to, payments from programs offered by or through the Office of Workforce Strategy established pursuant to section 4-124w, the Bureau of Rehabilitation Services within the Department of Aging and Disability Services or a private not-for-profit organization that is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or any subsequent corresponding internal revenue code of the United States, as amended from time to time. Such disregard shall be applied for the length of time the family member participates in such program, not to exceed thirty-six cumulative months.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:

Explanation

The bill requires the Department of Social Services (DSS) to disregard certain income for purposes of eligibility for the Temporary Family Assistance (TFA) program. DSS must disregard financial assistance associated with a family member's participation in (1) an approved pilot program that has developed a plan to study and evaluate the impact and potential benefits of direct cash transfers, and (2) a job training program approved by DSS. Income is disregarded during a client's participation in the program or up to 60 months under the pilot or 36 cumulative months under the job training program.

To the extent this income would have otherwise impacted benefit amounts or eligibility for program participants, DSS will incur related TFA costs. For context, the average TFA cost per case is approximately $730 per month.

The Out Years

The annualized ongoing fiscal impact identified above would continue into the future subject to the applicable programs and disregard amount.

SUMMARY

This bill requires the Department of Social Services (DSS) commissioner, when determining Temporary Family Assistance (TFA) eligibility, to disregard any financial assistance a family member gets from participating in a DSS-approved pilot program with a developed plan to study and evaluate the impact of direct cash transfers. Under the bill, this disregard applies for as long as the family member participates in the pilot program, up to 60 months, but is subject to DSS reauthorization every 24 months. The bill sets the conditions under which DSS may approve these pilot programs.

The bill also requires the DSS commissioner, when determining TFA eligibility, to disregard from income any stipend a family member gets from participating in a DSS-approved job training program, such as those offered by the Office of Workforce Strategy, the Department of Aging and Disability Services' Bureau of Rehabilitative Services, or a tax-exempt nonprofit. Under the bill, this disregard applies for as long as the family member participates in the training program, up to 36 months.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 1, 2025

INCOME DISREGARD FOR DSS-APPROVED PILOT PROGRAMS

The bill limits the pilot programs DSS may approve for the income disregard to those for which it can receive required waivers authorizing the disregard for federal and state benefits programs. Under the bill, DSS must request these waivers from all necessary federal, state, and local agencies and keep a publicly available list of approved programs.

Before approving a program, DSS must review the pilot program's long-term sustainability and its ability to meet programmatic and fiscal goals. It must require approved pilot programs to (1) inform potential participants in writing about how participating may impact their federal and state benefit eligibility now and in the future and (2) include contact information for participants to get more information or guidance on those impacts.

BACKGROUND

Legislative History

The House referred the bill (File 517) to the Appropriations Committee, which reported out a substitute that eliminates a provision requiring the DSS and early childhood commissioners to establish a pilot program implementing the benefit cliff mitigation recommendations made in a Two-Generational Initiative study.
