SPONSORS OF BILL:

Planning and Development

REASONS FOR BILL:

This Bill requires the Office of Policy and Management to study whether municipalities that participate in revenue sharing agreements can adopt differential mill rates for properties included in those agreements. The study must be reported to the Planning and Development Committee by January 1, 2027, along with any legislative recommendations.

This bill seeks to evaluate whether municipalities in revenue sharing agreements should have the flexibility to adopt different mill rates, potentially improving how local tax structures are managed and implemented.
