NARRATIVE

Institution’s narrative explaining the reported sexual violence statistics and data, including:

- Brief introduction about the institution, its history, its population and its efforts to ensure a safe and comfortable learning environment with respect to sexual violence.
- Concise and informative explanation of reportable sexual violence statistics and data, including clarification of number of incidents, reports, disclosures, discipline, and final outcomes.

Note:

POLICIES

Institution’s most recent policies regarding sexual assault, stalking, and intimate partner violence.*

- BOR/CSCU Sexual Misconduct Reporting, Support Services and Processes Policy (Effective 6/16/2016)
- BOR/CSCU Policy on Consensual Relationships (Effective 10/20/2016)
- BOR/CSCU Policy Regarding Reporting Suspected Abuse or Neglect of a Child (Effective 1/10/2015)

Middlesex Community College was chartered by the State of Connecticut in 1966 to serve the 18 towns Middlesex County including Middletown, Meriden, and the Shoreline. We serve between 2,500 and 3,000 full- and part-time students who attend the College each semester enrolled in credit bearing classes. Approximately 1,200 take classes through our various Continuing Education programs each year. Since 1966 Middlesex Community College has graduated over 9,800 students with associate’s degrees. Another 930 certificates have been awarded. All students and employees, whether enrolled in or teaching credit bearing courses or in our Continuing Education programs, whether studying in Middletown or at Platt H.S. in Meriden, whether taking on ground classes or studying online, are covered by the college’s sexual harassment and assault policies.

As a publicly-supported institution of higher education, MxCC provides an array of educational services designed to meet the training, occupational, intellectual, and cultural needs of the people of its region. Middlesex is an integral part of the communities it serves in Middletown, Meriden, and the Shoreline, and, as our mission statement says, “Students are the center of Middlesex Community College.” We keep students at the center by providing affordable, accessible, quality education and support services and by doing all we can to help our students succeed. We have a commitment to maintaining and improving the integrity of our environment and a deep concern for incorporating civic engagement into our courses and activities.

We attempt to keep our students and employees safe and aware of issues of sexual harassment and assault through awareness campaigns, presentations, video viewings, distribution of the sexual harassment brochure, class discussions, and use of the web-based Not Anymore program.

Discussion of Statistical Data

The college is fortunate that incidents of sexual assault, stalking, and intimate partner violence on the MxCC campus have been relatively few. Because of our commuter population, such incidents, if any, tend to occur off campus. Sometimes our students share this information with a staff or faculty member as a disclosure and no action is needed to be taken by the college. Brochures are available for staff and faculty members to give to those reporting or disclosing an incident and all members of the college community can get the support they need. Since September 2014, all incidents reported or disclosed to a faculty or staff member have been tracked on a tracking form submitted to the Title IX Coordinator. Prior to this date, faculty/staff were not required to complete and submit a tracking to the Title IX Coordinator.

Reports:

Students:
We received two reports of stalking on the part of students in 2019.

Employees:

Disclosures:
We received no domestic violence disclosures or reports for the 2019 calendar year.
We received three disclosures of sexual assault/harassment in 2019.

Program Types:
(List and Describe Each Program Type)

Awareness:
1) Information and sexual assault policy published in Installation: The Installation is published once a month and hung in all toilet stalls at the college. The September and January publications each year contain our nondiscrimination statement and Title IX/sexual assault information.
2) Brochure: What The MxCC Community Needs to Know About Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault: Policy & Reporting Procedures distributed throughout the college: This brochure was developed in 2015 to supplant our previous brochure and updated in 2016, 2017, and 2019. It is meant to inform students about the issue of sexual assault, our policies, the concept of affirmative consent, how to stay safe, and how to report a sexual assault.
3) Resources Information: All bathrooms contain information on resources available in Middletown and Meriden in the case of a sexual assault. Each poster has tear off slips with agency phone numbers.
4) Presentation to new employees at New Employee Orientation on Title IX, employee responsibilities, and affirmative consent.
5) Presentation on what happens at the hospital after a sexual assault by Women and Families Center on October, 2019.
6) Resources Information: All bathrooms contain information on resources available in Middletown and Meriden in the case of domestic violence. Each poster has tear off slips with agency phone numbers.

Risk Reduction:
7) Brochure: What The MxCC Community Needs to Know About Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault: Policy & Reporting Procedures distributed throughout the college: As described above, this brochure was developed in 2015 to supplant our previous brochure and updated in 2019. It is meant to inform students about the issue of sexual assault, our policies, the concept of affirmative consent, how to stay safe, and how to report a sexual assault. It is listed under the category of "Risk Reduction" because it also includes information on staying safe.

Prevention:
8) Implementation of Not Anymore Training: Not Anymore training on sexual assault was offered to students via email blasts. Participation was strong encouraged.
9) Middlesex Community College sponsored a presentation on "Denim Day" April 23rd, 2019
10) The college's Sexual Assault Community Resource Team met two times in 2019, on March 27th, 2019 and October 23rd, 2019.

Welcome New Students and Welcome Back Returning Students!

Greetings! I'm just your friendly MxCC English professor, Adam Floridia. Last semester, our wonderful Dean of Students, Adrienne Maslin, retired and left me in charge of putting out the "In-Stall-Ation." Each month, I will try to include helpful tips, relevant information, and assorted college tidbits for you to skim while you are otherwise occupied. If you ever have suggestions or just want to come say Hi, you can find me in Snow S20—just remember to wash your hands before visiting.

Did You Know?

You are one of about 19.9 million students who have decided to enroll in a US college this semester! CONGRATULATIONS on choosing to make education a priority in your life. Seriously, give yourself a pat on the back! (Maybe wait until after you leave the restroom....)

While you may be nervous, uncertain, confused, and myriad other emotions, everyone at MxCC hopes that you will quickly find your place with us, get involved in campus activities, and discover your passion while you are here:

We hope that you will discover who you want to be at MxCC!

Then our job is to help you become that person/professional! We look forward to working with, learning with, teaching, getting to know, laughing, supporting, mentoring, and challenging you! Here's to a great semester!

Bonus: English Workshops Mondays in the Academic Success Center from 12 - 1 p.m. beginning on September 2nd. Acquire reading strategies to build vocabulary, "read between the lines," and differentiate main ideas from supporting details.

Flyers distributed on campus and in new student orientation packets
1. Know that the definition of sexual assault includes any unwanted sexual contact, from touching to rape.
2. Be aware that alcohol and drugs can impair your ability to make clear decisions as well as lower sexual inhibitions.
3. Don't assume that your date wants to have sex even if you have before.
4. Be sure you and your potential partner clearly communicate your intentions to each other.
5. Know that "consent" means agreeing to an action freely, voluntarily, and with knowledge of the nature of the act.
6. Realize that consent to one form of sexual activity is not permission to partake in every type of sexual activity.
7. Understand that "No" means "No" no matter what.
8. Stop what you're doing if you're receiving unclear or conflicting messages.
9. Remember that date rape is a crime that has serious consequences.
10. Be aware that men can be victims of sexual assault. If you are, seek help immediately.
10 Things You Need To Know About

SEXUAL ASSAULT
For Women

1. Go with a group of friends or to a public place if on a first or blind date.
2. Make sure your cell phone is charged and you have money for a taxi.
3. Understand that alcohol and drugs can impair your ability to make clear decisions as well as lower sexual inhibitions.
4. Keep your drink with you at all times at a bar or party.
5. Don't accept drinks from people you don't know well or trust.
6. Be aware of your sexual limits. Communicate them firmly and directly.
7. Know that you have a right to say "No" no matter what.
8. Leave immediately and go to a safe place if a situation seems suspicious or dangerous.
9. Let friends know if you plan on going somewhere with someone, where you're going, and when you'll be back.
10. If you're sexually assaulted, report it right away. If you've been raped, don't clean up, change clothes, or tamper with evidence. Call 911 and go to the emergency room immediately.

At Middlesex Community College we take sexual assault seriously. In the event that you are assaulted either on or off the campus we want to make sure that you have the information you need in a clear, easy-to-read guide that will assist you in handling what will most likely be a difficult situation.

Board of Regents and Middlesex Community College Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Statement

To insure that each member of the college community has the opportunity to participate fully in the process of learning and understanding, all Connecticut colleges and universities strive to maintain a safe and welcoming environment free from acts of sexual misconduct and relationship violence. It is the intent of the Colleges to provide safety, privacy and support to victims of sexual misconduct and relationship violence.
What is Sexual Assault?

Sexual assault is any sexual act with a person who did not or cannot give consent. More specifically, sexual assault is defined as:

- Non-consensual sexual intercourse of any kind (anal, oral, or vaginal), however slight, with any body part or object, by a man or a woman.
- Non-consensual sexual contact which includes sexual touching, however slight, with any object, by a man or a woman.
- Sexual exploitation, which includes non-consensual, unjust, or abusive sexual advantage taken by a person of another for his or her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited. Examples of sexual exploitation include but are not limited to: prostitution, videotaping sexual activity of any sort without a partner’s consent, posting video or audio recordings on social media sites without consent of the individuals on the video or in the audio recording, peeping tommerly, and knowingly transmitting sexually transmitted infections without a partner’s knowledge.
What is Relationship Violence?
Relationship violence is physical abuse which can include but is not limited to slapping, pulling hair, or punching. Relationship violence can also include the threat of abuse. For example, when someone threatens to hit, harm, isolate, or use a weapon on a victim or an acquaintance, friend, or family member of the victim. Further, relationship violence may include emotional abuse such as driving recklessly to scare someone, name calling, threatening to hurt one’s pets, and humiliating another person. This type of abuse occurs when one person believes he or she is entitled to control another.

What is Stalking?
Stalking is any behavior that occurs on more than one occasion that collectively instills fear in the victim or threatens her or his safety, mental health, or physical health. Such activities may include non-consensual communications (face-to-face, telephone, email, text, social media, etc.), threatening or obscene gestures, surveillance, or being present outside the victim’s classroom, home, or workplace.
What is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual harassment includes any unwelcome sexual advance or request for sexual favors, or any conduct of a sexual nature when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s education or employment.

Submission to or rejection of the conduct by an individual is used as a basis for academic or employment decisions affecting the individual. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive educational environment. Examples of conduct which may constitute sexual harassment include but are not limited to:
- Sexual flirtation, touching, advances, or propositions
- Verbal abuse of a sexual nature
- Pressure to engage in sexual activity
- Graphic or suggestive comments about an individual’s dress or appearance
- Use of sexually degrading words to describe an individual
- Display of sexually suggestive objects, pictures, or photographs
- Sexual jokes
- Stereotypic comments based upon gender
- Threats, demands, or suggestions that one’s educational or employment status is contingent upon toleration of or acquiescence in sexual advances.
What is Consent?

Consent must be informed, freely and actively given, involving an understandable exchange of affirmative words or actions, which indicates a willingness to participate in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. It is the responsibility of the initiator to obtain clear and affirmative responses at each stage of sexual involvement.
What Consent is Not!!

The lack of a negative response is not consent. Consent may not be given by a minor or by any individual who is incapacitated, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, by drugs or alcohol, or for any other reason. Past consent of sexual activities does not imply ongoing or future consent. Someone who repeatedly says no and finally says yes is not giving consent. Someone who has been made to feel she or he must say yes is not giving consent. If an initiator uses a position of power or authority to coerce someone into saying yes, the initiator is not obtaining consent.
Can I Help Stop Sexual Assault?

Everyone has a role to play in ending sexual violence. It is our hope that while you are at Middlesex Community College you will take advantage of training opportunities so that you can play an active part in ending sexual assault. If you believe a situation might result in a sexual assault there are ways you can help:

- Don’t be afraid to get involved
- Get help from friends
- Get help from campus security and other college staff
- Divert the perpetrator’s attention
- Ask the person who is in a potentially dangerous situation if he or she wants to leave
- Ask the victim if he or she is okay
- Provide options and a listening ear

Not Alone
TOGETHER AGAINST SEXUAL ASSAULT
What If a Friend Tells Me She or He Was Sexually Assaulted?

If a friend discloses to you that she or he has been assaulted, the first thing to do is believe your friend. Help your friend to a safe place and ask if she or he needs medical help. If so, take your friend to the nearest hospital that has a sexual assault nurse examiner present. If your friend does not want to go to a hospital, do not insist unless it is a medical emergency. Listen to your friend without interrupting and don’t press for details. Remind your friend that she or he is not at fault. Know the resources on your campus and help your friend connect with those resources. You will find campus and community resources identified on page 17 of this booklet.
Minimizing Your Risk of Sexual Assault

Tips for Partying Smart

1. Stick with your friends. Make a plan before you go out to make it easy for you and your friends to stay connected.
2. Hold on to your drink—even when you go to the bathroom. If your drink is out of your sight, even for a few seconds, get a new one. Spiking a drink with a date rape drug can happen quickly.
3. Don’t accept a drink from anyone—unless you watch the bartender pour it.
4. Don’t drink from punch bowls or open containers.
5. Avoid clubs or parties that charge men but let women enter and drink for free.
6. Always keep your cell phone charged and on you. You never know when you’ll need it.
7. Make sure you always have a ride home or a plan to walk home with a friend.
8. Trust your instincts. If something doesn’t feel right to you, leave and get to a safe place immediately.

Minimizing Your Risk of Committing Sexual Assault

1. Listen carefully. Take time to hear what the other person has to say. If you feel he or she is not being direct or is giving you a “mixed message,” ask for clarification.

2. Don’t fall for the cliché “if they say no, they really mean yes.” If your partner says “no” to sexual contact, believe your partner and stop.

3. Remember that sexual assault is a crime. It is never acceptable to force sexual activity, no matter what the circumstances.

4. Don’t make assumptions about a person’s behavior. Don’t assume that someone wants to have sex because of the way the person is dressed, drinks, or because she or he agrees to go to your room. Don’t assume that if someone had sex with you before that person is willing to have sex with you again. Also don’t assume that if your partner consents to kissing or other sexual activities, he or she is consenting to all sexual activities.

5. Having sex with someone who is mentally or physically incapable of giving consent is rape. If you have sex with someone who is drugged, intoxicated, passed out, or is otherwise incapable of saying no or knowing what is going on, you may be guilty of rape.

6. Resist pressure from others to participate in violent acts.

When and How to Report
It is always helpful to report an incident of sexual misconduct as soon as possible. However, the college recognizes that the decision to file a report is difficult and may take time. Because memories may fade and witnesses may become inaccessible, the sooner information is gathered the greater is the ability of the college to effectively investigate and resolve the matter fairly to all parties concerned.

Confidentiality
While the college will treat reports of sexual misconduct and relationship violence seriously and sensitively for all concerned, the college cannot assure complete confidentiality, particularly when the safety of others may be involved. MxCC employees must share your report with the college’s Title IX Coordinator. Reports that are completely confidential may be filed with the Sexual Assault Crisis Center (see p. 16).

Title IX Investigation Process

- A report of sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, intimate partner or dating violence, and stalking always require an investigation.
- A disclosure may not always require an investigation; some people disclose in order to explain why some behavior occurred or to get something off their chest. Some disclosures may require investigating if failure to investigate might result in repeat occurrences.

- The Title IX Officer will meet with the complainant to learn the nature of the complaint and to collect as much information as possible: what occurred, when it occurred, where it occurred, who the alleged perpetrator was if known, any injuries, any witnesses, any follow-up such as a visit to the hospital or rape crisis center, etc.
- The Title IX Officer will provide the complainant with information about the complainant's right to contact law enforcement and about resources for counseling and medical assistance.

- The Title IX Officer will meet with the alleged perpetrator to collect as much information about the incident as possible: what occurred, when it occurred, where it occurred, any injuries, any witnesses.
- The Title IX Officer will discuss the investigation process and possible sanctions

- The Title IX Officer will meet with each party individually to discuss the results of the preliminary investigation and next steps to be taken if necessary. Results may suggest an obvious course of action or may suggest that a hearing would be appropriate and beneficial.

- A hearing panel will be assembled and trained.
- Parties will be informed of date, time, location of the hearing, who they may bring for support or assistance, and how the hearing will be conducted.

- The hearing panel will deliberate and report its findings to the Title IX Officer.

- Sanctions will be determined as appropriate to the situation.
