

I am speaking out against the police legislation that senator Somers spoke about on July 1. I believe that she fully investigated The points she brought forward to make a case against this legislation. It is important that our legislators don't make decisions that are not based on facts that have been proven.

Sent from my iPhone