

The relationship of Police and citizens in the United States can be compared to that of the relationship of an husband (police) and wife (citizens) in a perpetual divorce.

It's as a husband declares his devotion to uphold his protection of its dear spouse, devoted and committed never wanting to part.

However, at the slightest misdeed of the wife the husband is overbearing. The slightest action of the wife to remove herself from any physical abuse, even legally (divorce), incurs the husband's self imposed conviction and execution of the death penalty on his wife.

Unthinkable? If such is not tolerated in a marriage, why is it allowed in our society between police and the citizens of the state?
